Dining

The Volga Dream offers the best of traditional Russian cuisine, international flavors, extraordinary personal service and attention to details, making every meal feel like an experience.

At breakfast there's a choice of continental, American and Russian options. Enjoy Russian pancakes with homemade jams, fresh pastries, steaming hot porridge or a selection of continental meats and cheeses with crispy fresh bread. Or perhaps you'd like a made-to-order omelet or eggs benedict on toast? Accompanied by freshly squeezed juices, fresh fruits, yoghurts and mueslis and of course good French coffee you'll feel ready to face the day ahead.

Every day a delightful buffet lunch is served in the restaurant with the international dishes on offer inspired by the local produce bought onshore that day. On sunny days it's our pleasure to invite guests up on to the Sun Deck to enjoy some al fresco dining and a barbeque lunch as we sail off down the beautiful Volga river to our next destination.

For most however the main event is always the a la carte evening dinner. Taking a different theme every day our Chef brings fine dining to your table night after night. From the fresh steamed sturgeon to a rack of lamb or steak au poivre, tiger prawns and authentic Russian borsch, every meal is a chance to marvel at the culinary excellence of our innovative kitchen and the excellent seafood available around Russia's longest river.

Wine

At lunch and dinner times a choice of red or white wines is served as complimentary with your meal. For those wishing something more special, our Maitre D' will be glad to offer a selection of finest wines to accompany your meal.

Tea & coffee

What you want, whenever you want it! 24 hours a day free teas, coffee, juice and cookies are available, so you never need to wait a moment to enjoy the view with a fresh drink and snack.
